on January 14th, 2017,
12:00 - 5:00 pm at the MUSA;
Hagenweg 2a Göttingen

For equal social rights for all and the right to come, to go and to stay

We would like to invite you, your groups, initiatives or organizations to the next work conference of welcome2stay on the 14th of January, 2017 in Göttingen. The focus of the conference will be the preparation for the upcoming campaign days, for which welcome2stay calls up, between the 18th - 23d of march. At the same time the conference should also be a place to further connect and network.

With the campaign days we want to articulate our core demands, the right to come, to go and to stay and social rights for all.

This shall show at how many places people are already living a solidary counterdraft compared to the prevalent policy of separation and regulated migration based on economic standards.

The main focus of the campaign days is on the right to stay in every aspect, as well as the fight against deportations. Deportations belong to the most radical and most violent violations of equal social rights and the right of freedom of movement. However, for the government it is a proven method of their exacerbated asylum policy and the integration of the marginal right wing. Against this we want and we must get loud! You can find the call of action here:

The working conference in January will be for one a place for a creative search for ideas: what forms of actions are possible? With what did we have good experiences? What could be novel approaches?

For another, concrete steps must be taken: in order to become a whole from various nationwide campaigns, we need bundling procedures, such as regional coordination teams and nationwide highlights.

Below you can find a suggestion for an agenda.

The conference takes place from 12 - 17 pm in the MUSA at Hagenweg 2a, Göttingen.

To participate, we kindly ask you to register under: goettingen@welcome2stay.org

Best regards,
your welcome2stay coordination team
